Speech by the Vice-Chancellor

Dear Scholars and cosmopolitan friends, it is with utmost joy that I awaited the event of today. It is also with great honor that I commemorate the 50th convocation of our dear University, Obafemi Awolowo University. Aristotle once mentioned that "Although Greece might be the greatest, Greece has attained her greatness through the might of her scholars".

My gratitude goes to every organizing member of the committee, to you, our guests and to you our scholars. I hope to see you excel. Thank you.
